Explanation

This bill requires the Commissioners of Mental Retardation and Social Services to submit to the Public Health Committee: 1) a proposal to implement the recommendations of the Advisory Commission on Services and Supports for Persons with Developmental Disabilities; and 2) a plan to provide services to persons with traumatic brain injury. Both departments will be able to meet the requirements of the bill within their existing resources, however it is anticipated that there will be an increase or re-distribution of their workload. It should be noted that implementing the plans identified in the bill might result in future costs to the state.
